Chapter 1 by Mason Lee

Reverse Poem

by Summer Lee

Life is monochrome.
I refuse to believe that
There is goodness in this world.
Kindness and joy live.
Ha! Never reality.
Cruelty and greed
Always the ways to go.
Love and peace are
in a life there should be.
And all this will come true unless we reverse it.
(Now read from bottom to top.)

Black

The moon shines brightly

The stars dim

Darkness plunges the sky.
It slowly fades.
Spreading soft light,
The sun is majestic,
The birds fly to bow.
Suddenly,
Everything is life.

(Now read it from bottom to top.)
